

Roll up roll up,

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, THE FIRST

SOCIAL CIRCUS COLOURING BOOK

IS HERE AND YOU ARE OUR HONOURED GUESTS.

In this book we have pictures sent from every corner of the earth, capturing the swirls, curls and wiggly whirls of the magical big top kingdom.

By buying this book you have contributed to keeping something amazing going.

This community of acrobats, jugglers and clowns make sure that everybody has access to play, happiness and laughter. So pick up your pens, pick out your favourite colours and get scribbling. We would love to see what you come up with so please send your completed pages to us here at....

I WOULD LIKE TO SAY A

BIG THANK YOU

TO ALL THE ORGANISATIONS WHO CONTRIBUTED TO AND SUPPORTED THE CREATION OF THIS COLOURING BOOK.

It has been a wonderful experience getting to know all the amazing work out there.

I hope this book inspires more people to use social circus as a tool for inclusion of the marginalised and helps highlight it's power to bring people together and brighten their lives!

DO IT!

CREATE A SOCIAL CIRCUS IN YOUR COMMUNITY AND INVITE EVERYONE!
YOU WON'T REGRET IT.

A special thanks to Zita Baynes, Vladimir Zavgorodny, Kate Magram and Ash Perrin for their contributions to the content and design of this book.

And thank you for bringing colour to our world!

Charlene Whitehead,
Editor & Director of Spark Circus

There are over 500 social circus organisations in the world, this book only covers a very small portion.

CONNECTING TO THE SOCIAL CIRCUS COMMUNITY

If you are part of a social circus program anywhere in the world, and would like to connect with the international social circus community, we invite you to join up with the following initiatives that currently exist for the purpose of connecting the social circus community and sharing information about social circus, both within the community and with people outside of it:

Social Circus Network:

<http://www.social-circus.com>
